Table 1-2. DISPOSITION OF THE PUBLIC DOMAIN, 1781-2000 – concluded

Note: Data are estimated from available records.

- /a/ Chiefly public, private, and preemption sales, but includes mineral entries, scrip locations, and sales of townsites and townlots.

- /b/ The homestead laws generally provided for the granting of lands to homesteaders who settled upon and improved vacant agricultural public lands. Payment for the lands was sometimes permitted, or required, under certain conditions.

- /c/ Universities, hospitals, asylums, etc.

- /d/ For construction of various public improvements (individual items not specified in the granting acts), reclamation of desert lands, construction of water reservoirs, etc.

- /e/ The government has confirmed title to lands claimed under valid grants made by foreign governments prior to the acquisition of the public domain by the United States.

- /f/ The timber and stone laws provided for the sale of lands valuable for timber or stone and unfit for cultivation.

- /g/ The timber culture laws provided for the granting of public lands to settlers if they planted and cultivated trees on the lands granted. Payments for the lands were permitted under certain conditions.

- /h/ The desert land laws provided for the sale of arid agricultural public lands to settlers who irrigated them and brought them under cultivation. Some desert land patents are still being issued (refer to Table 3-1, Patents Issued).

- /i/ Alaska Statehood Act of July 7, 1958 (72 Stat. 338), as amended.

- /j/ Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act of December 18, 1971 (43 U.S.C. 1601).
